Chief of Detectives Leal stopped a runaway horse at risk to himself and sustaining bruises on that account, last Friday, thus saving the mad animal from dashing into the funeral procession at the obsequies of the late Mother Superior Judith. A horse hitched to one of Marshall's delivery wagons broke the hope that tied him to a post, and Leal grabbed the line just as the brute was about to run into a group of children in the funeral procession, near Richards and King.

CLOSING OF THE GREAT CAMPAIGN

In the community Blue Book as a Live Wire, is one of the busy men who has given liberally of his time to the Y. M. C. A. building fund campaign. Mr. Bush long since gave substantial evidence of his approval of the Association, but says the public spirit and harmony features of the organization for the new buildings determined him to make the sacrifices necessary to joining the forces that have been lurching at the Bishop street headquarters since Tuesday last.

"The spirit and the dynamo of this movement are well described in the catchy phrase 'Honolulu United.' We have wanted some good slogan for a long time and I believe that we now have one to which every man interested in the future of Honolulu can subscribe most heartily. It can be applied to any and every movement that means a forward step for the community. It is better than Chicago's 'I Will' or 'Watch Tacoma Grow.' It means harmony and organization. It means a regular snowball making pace and method on everything that we undertake. They say that organization and

DEMOCRATS FOR EXTRA SESSION

L. L. McCandless, the almost-certain candidate of the Democratic party for the office of Delegate to Congress, believes in a special session of the Legislature, provided that there is any assurance of the passage of land laws, for embodiment in the Organic Act, in line with the ideas of the Democrats as urged at the regular session of the Legislature.

"The Democrats are in favor of a special session," says Mr. McCandless, "if that special session will supply the important thing omitted by the regular session—a land law along American lines. If a special session is called, the Democrats will be on hand with a bill which, if embodied in the Organic Act, will enable homesteaders to acquire land on reasonable terms, which is not now possible. The present law is a law for the big man; we want to give 120 small men a chance. As it now stands our own poor men are unable to acquire homes, and it is impossible, under the law, to offer homes to settlers from the mainland."

"I want to see the land settled up by our own people—Hawaiians and Americans; and we must have laws that will make such a thing possible. The big corporations have had and are still having their innings. When are the people to have a show? They should have it now. The present law is no good, and everybody knows it. Why hold on to it?"

"The scheme prepared by the Democrats for consideration by the last Legislature (and which should have been passed), whereby it was proposed to apply the American plan to the public lands of Hawaii, was entirely satisfactory. It would have brought about just such a condition as some people other than Democrats seem coming around to feel would be the correct thing. This measure was quashed by the passage of the Governor's pet bill."

"As I have indicated before, the Democrats have on tap a plan that will be entirely workable and satisfactory. If there is any chance of a special session of the Legislature bringing the day nearer when we will have such a law, I say, let us have such special session by all means."

TREASURE ON TENYO

The S. S. Tenyo Maru arrived from San Francisco, docking about eleven o'clock. She was off Koko Head much earlier than that but was slowed down owing to a wireless having been sent that she would not dock till ten o'clock and it was not known just what arrangements had been made to receive Prince Kuniyoshi Kuni, who was on board. Owing to the large crowd of steamer passengers the medical examination took much longer than usual.

The steamer had a fine trip which was practically devoid of incident with the exception that a steamer passenger died of consumption and was buried at sea in 28:45 N. and 145:23 W.

The steamer brought 229 sacks of mail for this port and has only 875 tons of through cargo.

The S. S. Nippon Maru was passed yesterday quite close.

The Tenyo Maru will take twenty-two cabin passengers from here, including the one and only "Valvoline" Graham. She will also take sixty-four steerage passengers from here.

Aboard the steamer is $2,500,000 in treasure, $2,000,000 of which is for the Yokohama Specie Bank at Kobe.

The through cargo includes 850 tons of sugar, 200 rolls of leather, and 1000 cases of roofing material.

SOUL MATES IN PRISON CELLS

A woman whose last name is Perreira and a man whose surname is Friedenberg are occupying separate cells at the police station.

Having no money and apparently no friends they are likely to languish, separated by stone walls, for want of the price of bail.

They are charged with adultery on complaint of the husband of the woman, though they choose not to entertain any such ugly word in their conversation. They prefer to be referred to as soul mates. The arrests occurred Saturday night on Kukui street.

GOVERNOR'S TRIP

Governor Frear is booked to leave for Washington in steamers of October 6 and 10, but he intimated this morning a possibility that he may not go.
